Trillium rivale
exhibited by Cyril Lafong

I included this picture to show you just how difficult it was for Cyril to lift his heavy Forrest winning pan of Trillium rivale.

At first glance this seems to be the selection T. r. 'Purple Heart' but closer inspection reveals several different flower forms, some of which I have printed on page 1.

The variation is the result of different seedlings growing together. Each resembles its parent but there are tiny differences.
