

Grown mainly for its fabulous velvety foliage Podophyllum delavayi has changed its name to Dysoma delavayi [or has it changed the other way?]. A Chinese mayapple, it has red flowers under its leaves which turn a wonderful red in autumn.

Silene acaulis 'Frances' has white flowers [there are few on top] but its main attraction is its golden green foliage. A fine cushion plant. The original plant was found in the Shetlands. It was another winner for Sue Simpson.

Labels in the bottom-left image: SEDUM BRACHYPTERUM 'LOTTIE PRAGER', SEDUM MURICIDUM, and a label for the 'Dawn & Sunset' variety.

Lewisia for All
like the white Lewisia hybrid 'Brynfyrd' in the top left

Glasgow's motto is 'Let Glasgow Flourish'.

As you can see, it is not only the city but the SRGC and the plants also flourish.
